Holiday Parade Guidelines Entry Deadline: November 18, 2011

- Line up is at Osram. Directions available on the website — www.exeterholidayparade.org
- Judging begins at 4:00PM, criteria on website— www.exeterholidayparade.org
- Applicants assume all responsibility for any loss or damage in connection with their float entry at the Exeter Holiday Parade.
- The Parade Committee in conjunction with the Exeter Police Department reserves the right to cancel the parade for any reason - including inclement weather. An alternate parade date of Sunday, December 5th has already been established. Please check our website for any announcements on parade day.
- The Parade Committee reserves the right to disallow inappropriate entries.
- No alcoholic beverages will be allowed during the events.
- Unregistered entries will not be allowed to participate in the parade.
- Upon entering Osram, you'll receive a float number and a parade staging map. The float number is to be taped to the driver's side of the front windshield. The number identifies your line-up position at Osram, informs the judges who you are and assists the parade announcer at the bandstand.
- Participants on vehicles or walking MAY NOT THROW candy to people along the parade route. Candy must be handed out to the crowd.
- Distribution of brochures or literature for fundraising or promotional purposes is not allowed along the parade route.
- No float and/or vehicle is to be left unattended at any time while waiting for the parade to start.
- Scout Leaders, we need your help. Please carpool to Osram. The traffic volume at Osram is extremely heavy.
- Fire trucks will line up on Portsmouth Ave. just before the entrance to Osram.
- All Horse entries will line up at Wentworth Lumber, across from Osram.
- Remember, there is only one Santa Claus.
